The School Council did a wonderful job on Tuesday organising the day with KAPLA®. We welcomed Jennifer who worked brilliantly with the children, ensuring they had a wonderful and memorable experience.

The School Council have thanked KAPLA® for coming to our school and we hope all the children enjoyed it. The School Council reported it was fun and enjoyable for everyone. Some parents saw the finished structures, consisting of Class 1 and 2's lakes, villas and bridges and Class 3 and 4's giraffe, trains and palaces, but we have shared photos below.

"Playing with KAPLA® stimulates the imagination and artistic instinct in every one of us: from tentative beginnings to ambitious projects, the possibilities are endless..."

This week we announced our Year 6 roles, as follows: Yellowhammers: Max (Captain), Rupert (Vice Captain), Thomas and Rufus (Vice Captains and Librarians). Robins: Luke (Captain and Librarian), Hannah (Vice Captain and Librarian), Henry T and Elsie (Vice Captains and School Council). Greenfinches: Archie (Captain), Bea (Vice Captain and School Council), Rose (Vice Captain and Librarian). Kingfishers: James (Captain), Henry C (Vice Captain), Celia (Vice Captain and Librarian), Francis and Abi (Vice Captains and School Council). We hope the children enjoy their new roles and we look forward to hearing about all the events over the coming months.

Please send your child in with a vegetable, fruit or healthy snack and remember to pack a bottle of water (no squash please). Free fruit is available to KS1 children.
Don't forget we are a nut free school!
