Reminders

Today we are sending home our voluntary contribution letters. Thank you for your support.

We remind parents, children are not allowed to enter the school carpark at any time. The entrance to the car park from the school is locked during the day.

Covid Update - We currently have no cases of Covid in school.

We hope you all have a wonderful half term break and thank you for all of your support so far this year. Mr Jones.

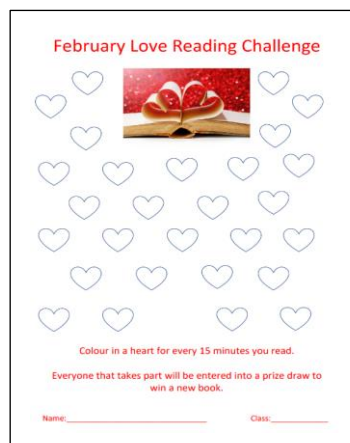

Library Update - We have some very exciting events happening next half term.

On Tuesday 29th Feb, Bookbugs and Dragontales will be in school to deliver workshops to each class and they will be having a book shop open to all children in the Mary Fairman Room at 3pm, where you will get the change to spend your free £1 book voucher.

On Thursday 3rd March, we will be having An Author and Illustrator visit.

Both events are being funded by the FOW, So thank you very much!

Please drop off book donations for the book tombola taking place on Thursday 3rd March. We are raising money for new books for the classrooms. Books can be dropped off in the Mary Fairman Room the week after half term.

Don't forget to keep reading over half term and complete February's Love Reading Challenge. All entries will be entered into a prize draw.

EXCITING BEDTIME STORY NEWS

Catherine, the Duchess of Cambridge, will become the next famous face to read a CBeebies Bedtime Story.

It has been revealed that the duchess will appear on the CBeebies show during Children's Mental Health Week. She has chosen to read 'The Owl Who Was Afraid of the Dark' by Jill Tomlinson. The Duchess of Cambridge's bedtime story will be available to watch from Sunday 13 February.
