Choice #1: Write a lockdown poem

You are all really good at writing poetry, so this is your task for this week. Have a go at writing a poem about your lockdown experience. Below are the suggested steps you could take.

Step #1: write on pieces of paper or post-it notes the following:

- What have you been doing to keep busy? (school work, bike rides, walks, board games, reading, making Viking longboats, FaceTime with friends, etc.)
- What have you been feeling? (happy, sad, frustrated, thankful, etc.)
- What would you like to do when restrictions are loosened even more? (give your family and friends hugs, go on a holiday outside of the UK, go on a holiday in the UK, go to a restaurant, etc.)

Step #2: place your pieces of paper or post-it notes in whatever order you think is best.

Step #3: take each idea and write it into a phrase. Remember, your poem does not have to rhyme. Please just remember capital letters at the beginning of each phrase! You may not need a full stop/exclamation mark/question mark at the end of each phrase; read your poem out loud and then put a full stop in when you come to a 'natural' pause.

Try to include the following:

- powerful and interesting verbs, adjectives and adverbs
- alliteration
- similes
- personification
- onomatopoeia

Please email your poem to office@wreningham.norfolk.sch.uk (or directly to Mrs Cameron) as we would love to read them!

Choice #2: Apply for a Blue Peter badge

Blue Peter are running a '6 Badges of Summer' challenge. Here is a link for more information about the challenge: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbbc/joinin/six-badges-of-summer?collection=6-badges-of-summer>

Throughout this challenge, Blue Peter will suggest things you can do which you'll be able to use towards earning the different badges.

You will need to apply for each badge individually and here is a link to find out how: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbbc/curations/blue-peter-badges>

If you do apply for any, when you receive them in the post, please send a picture of you wearing it to office@wreningham.norfolk.sch.uk (or directly to Mrs Cameron - I think you all have my school email address now).
